Marea-Forsyth High School

101 Cedar Street

Marea, IL 61756

These eighteen seniors started together attending kindergarten at Maroa Grade School eleven years ago. 1985 was the year when these children began on their journey. Slowly through the years these students, along with many more, helped piece together the Class of 1998.

J. Perkins, J. Gruetman, Z. Duncan, M. Krumtinger, R. Wallace, A. Hanes, D. Clifton, J. Zombro, D. Cook, J. Underwood, J. Hamilton, N. Tynan, J. Hoke, D. Shoemaker, L. Dagget, N. Stemler, J. Summers

Reflecting upon the year 1985, these young adults began their schooling at Forsyth Grade School. Little did they know that they would join some of their best friends several years down the road. So, thus the core of the senior class is revealed. Best of luck in the future. We love you Class of 1998!

The 1997 Maroa-Forsyth Volleyball team started with a bang and ended with a bang. The girls overcame a three time loss to Clinton in the Regional Finals. Many memories will remain with these girls. This year's team was lead by three seniors: Alison Morgan, Jody Rice, and Nikki Stemler. Their experience and great attitudes helped make the season a success. The great accomplishments for this year's team were wins at Monticello, a win at home against Meridian, and the Regional championship at Cerro Gordo. The seniors had help from many other players. The juniors that helped make us a team to beat were Katie Korte, Courtney Schroeder, and Billi Zombro. Several underclassmen completed our roster. These girls gave the fans so much excitement. They will always remember the cheers against Clinton; this helped push them over the hill for an awesome win!

This coach hopes that Courtney finds two matching shoes, Katie stays awesome, and Billi finds enough food for the season. Cynda has to learn where the serving line starts, Tina plays middle hitter, Nicole keeps both ankles strong, and Abby hits the ball in front of her swing. We all know Lisa will stay focused, and April will serve consistently at all tournaments.

The team voted Nikki Stemler as the 1997 MVP, Katie Korte for the Spark Plug, and Courtney Schroeder as Most Improved.

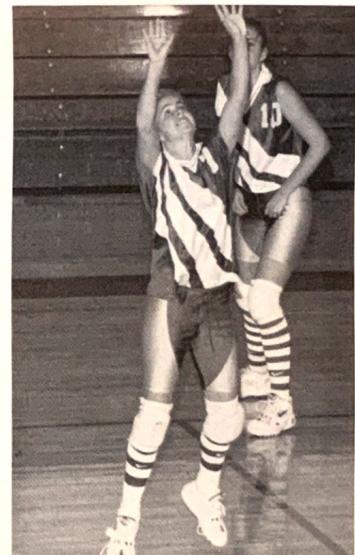

This team will look to improve their record, and strive for the top. Coach Suzanne Kreps- Can we say JUMP TRAINING, SPRINTS, AND THE PIT DRILL????

97-98 Cheerleaders

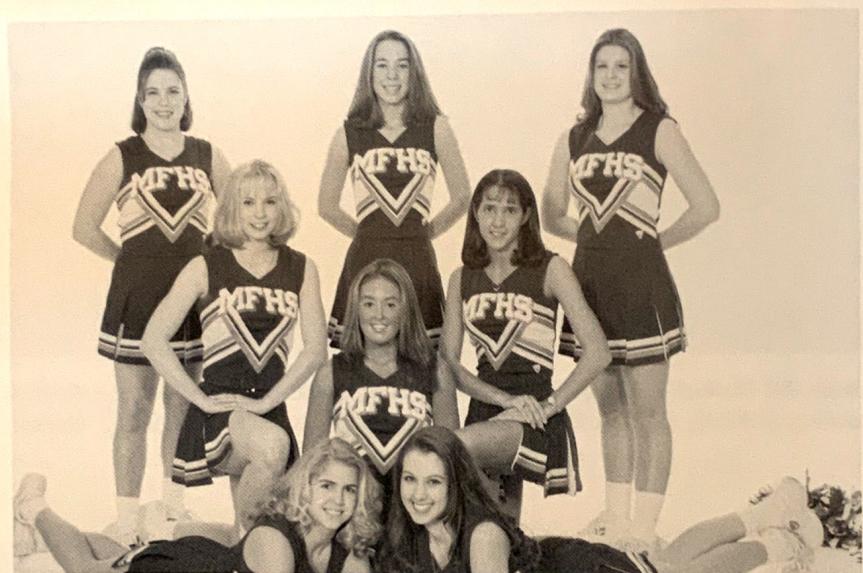

This year the Trojan Cheerleaders gave it everything they had to make the 1997-98 season one to remember. Between football and basketball, the cheerleaders stayed very busy. All the work was worth it, for each of the members accomplished so many new goals.

To the five seniors: Thanks for all the memories. Good luck in everything you undertake and remember to believe in your dreams! We hope to follow in the path you five have paved for us next season. You'll be missed.

From April to March the Trojanettes had many successes. From tryouts to competition, they were busy with one event after another. They performed at halftime for football games (including homecoming), basketball games, and Jazz Night.

This year at IDTA competition, the Trojanettes did very well. Performing the routine "FIRE," they brought home two second place trophies. While at Tuscola, the Trojanettes placed first and qualified for Supersectionals with the highest point totals of the whole competition. The year ended with a fourth place finish at Supersectionals. The girls should be very proud of themselves. Congratulations to Tonya Kowa for achieving UDA All Star status and Meaka Zalkin for achieving IDTA All Star status. Good luck to The Seniors: Tonya Kowa and Tarin Wright.

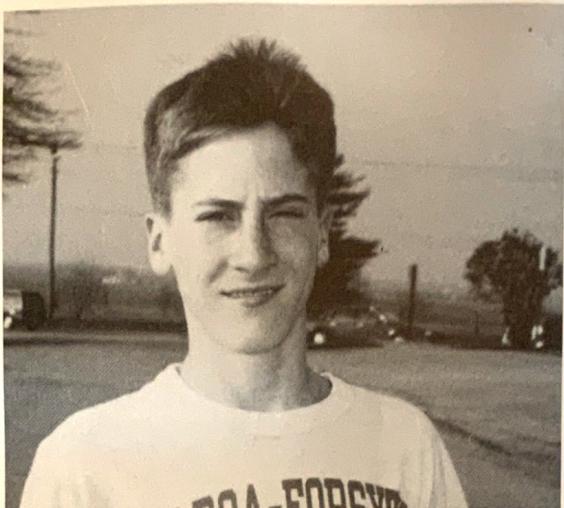

Cross-Country/Wrestling

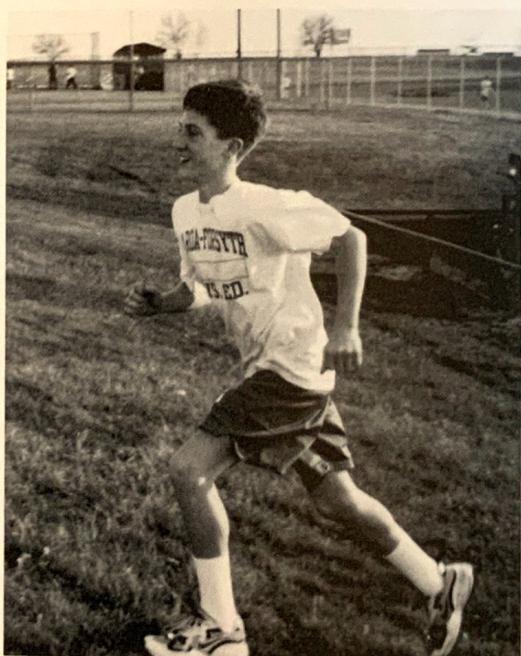

Cross-Country Runner Matt Krumtinger.

Again this year, Maroa co-operated with Argenta-Orena for cross-country. The strenuous workouts led to success throughout the season for both Krummy and Bailey. Jon Stuff was Maroa's lone wrestler. He co-operated with Warrensburg-Latham, and also had a successful year on Varsity.

State qualifier Rachel Balagna had a great season.

Both the Boy's and Girl's track teams were exceptionally good again this year. From Maroa alone, Charrmaine Rogers, Becky Jacobsen, Rachel Balagna, Joel Nagle, and Matt Krumtinger all qualified for state. The rest of the season was filled with many wins and championships.
